Rubrics for Drawing. This rubric may be used for assessing individual performance on a drawing assignment. This drawing rubric is the perfect companion to my writing rubric. It follows a simple 1-5 continuum. 1 starts with scribbling and 5 finishes with a full illustration that includes details and correct colors for objects, along with coloring in the lines. Rubrics are great tools to help communicate the expectations and assess students. If you choose the right rubric for the task, you will find it will help both you and your students be successful. For a comprehensive look at assessment in the art room, be sure to take a peek at the AOE course Assessment in Art Education. You'll leave class with a comprehensive toolkit of lesson plans and organization strategies.
